Negro-American Labor Council

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, on January 11, 1965, advised that at a National Board Negro-American Labor Council (NALC) meeting, which was held in Washington, D. C., on January 10, 1965, it was decided that the "State of the Race" Conference which was originally scheduled to be held at Howard University in Washington, D. C., in December, 1964, will now be held at the Riverside Church in New York City on January 30-31, 1965. It will be restricted to Negro leaders who will meet to discuss problems and solutions in the field of civil rights, employment and economics which involve the Negro. The UNIA will have five delegates, each of any other civil rights organizations who attend will have three delegates, while any church and fraternal organizations who attend will have one delegate each.

The source advised that the Communist Party, United States of America will not be invited or allowed to attend the conference.

Re Bureau letter to New York, 1/3/65; New Haven letter to Bureau, 1/6/65.

New York file 100-136535, the file on MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR., has been reviewed in an effort to determine if in the past KING had been in contact with anyone named AL who is a writer, but this review did not reveal any pertinent information.

The file concerning ALLARD K. LOEWENSTEIN (Bufile 105-103163; NY 105-51644), which was mentioned in referenced letter dated 1/6/65, was reviewed. The case is entitled, "ALLARD KLAUSHEI LOEWENSTEIN; IS-SPAIN; RA-SPAIN". The following information was obtained:

The 3/20/60 issue of "The New York Times" contained an article entitled, "Campuses in North Back Southern Negro Students". In the article, it was stated that ALLARD K. LOEWENSTEIN, a lawyer of 25 West 31st Street, had recently returned from a fact finding tour of the South. He arrived from Alabama on 3/11/60, at Yale University, where he explained the issues and urged the students to return to their college communities and organize demonstrations and protests.

On 4/2/63, Lieutenant [redacted] United States Army, Recruiting Station, 201 West Cabarrus Street, Raleigh, North Carolina, advised SA [redacted] that ALLARD K. LOEWENSTEIN was an attorney, teacher, and writer. He also advised that LOEWENSTEIN is an outspoken opponent of racial segregation.

It is to be noted that LOWENSTEIN wrote a book entitled, "Brutal Mandate", which was described as a prolonged editorial against the South African apartheid program.

The Department advised in July, 1963, that the information furnished failed to reflect sufficient evidence to warrant soliciting LOWENSTEIN to register under the provisions of the Foreign Agents Registration Act of 1938; therefore, the case was closed.

According to an article which appeared in the 4/21/64 issue of the "Raleigh Times", a daily newspaper published at Raleigh, North Carolina, AL LOWENSTEIN, Professor of Social Studies at North Carolina State, was the dinner guest of Senator and Mrs. J. WILLIAM FULLERBRIGHT of Arkansas, this past weekend in Washington, D.C. President and Mrs. LYNDON B. JOHNSON, Secretary of Defense ROBERT S. MC NAMARA, and ADLAI STEVENSON were also guests of the FULLERBRIGHTS.

According to an article which appeared in the 8/26/64 issue of the "News and Observer", a daily newspaper published at Raleigh, North Carolina, LOWENSTEIN, a professor at North Carolina State College, Raleigh, resigned from the faculty of State College effective 7/1/64. The article revealed that Dr. GEORGE GULLETTE, Chairman of the Social Studies Department, who announced the resignation, declined to discuss the reasons LOWENSTEIN gave for his resignation but stated he believed LOWENSTEIN wanted to work in the presidential campaign and write another book later in the fall.

The Bureau's attention is directed to the fact that ALLARD H. LOWENSTEIN has been an outspoken critic of segregation and has been a professional writer who has written on the subject apartheid. It is also to be noted that LOWENSTEIN spoke at Yale University, New Haven,

NY 100-153735

Connecticut, on 12/8/64, on the subject the Freedom Democratic Party in Mississippi. On 11/26/64, AL (LNU) of Stamford, Connecticut, was in contact with KING, and on 12/3/64, MAYARD RUSTIN was in contact with one AL ORENSTEIN (ph) (possibly LOWENSTEIN) of Connecticut, at which time they discussed changes in the Mississippi Branch of the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee.

It would seem, from the information set out above, that undoubtedly ALLARD K. LOWENSTEIN is identical with AL (LNU), mentioned in redilet.

On Saturday, January 2, 1955, the Westside Unified Action Committee held an indoor rally at 100 West 82nd Street, New York City. About twenty-five persons were in attendance when this rally began.

[redacted] was present but did not speak. JESSE GREY, a scheduled speaker, was not there. [redacted] spoke and stated she was sorry more persons were not in attendance but she blamed the bad weather for this poor showing. She stated that they would go on with their plan to picket the building at 205-07 87th Street, New York City. She spoke about the numerous pay raises recently given to high city officials, the waste in the City government, the monies received by various landlords, and the fact that the landlords do nothing for the tenants in return. At approximately 3:15 pm, fifteen persons then walked to 207 West 85th Street, New York City and proceeded to picket in front of the building from 3:30 to 4:00 pm. These pickets, both white and Negro, carried placards which stated in both english and spanish, "Down With Landlords" and "Do Not Pay Rent If You Have Rats In Your Apartment". A police lieutenant and four policemen were on the street nearby. There was no violence and no racial incidents.

Re: Communist Influence in

New York Committee For

Racial Matters

James Jackson opened the discussion by reporting on his observation of the opening day of Congress. He described the demonstration of the "Mississippi Pilgrims" as most impressive. He said it was a lineup of very dedicated people, consisting of 600 and a caravan of 150 cars.

Jackson said this challenge is clearly a constitutional and legal embarrassment to the Johnson Administration. He expressed the opinion that 1965 should be a year of peoples lobbies and demonstrations in Washington.

Theodore Bassett said that he was at a meeting recently of church groups and they are making plans for the campaign to seat the rightful Mississippi delegation. He said "we" should recognize this thing for what it is, a mass action, mass protest and get masses to go to Washington to support the true Mississippi delegation to Congress.

[redacted] said they should examine the reasons why certain Congressmen voted against the seating of the Mississippi delegation.

On January 8, 1965, a confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that [redacted] and Stanley Levison were in contact on that date. During their contact, Levison inquired as to how "their session" went that date. [redacted] said everything was fine. Levison inquired as to who attended the session, prompting [redacted] to name the following: Martin Luther King, Elstein (phonetic) (Ralph Helstein), [redacted], Bayard Rustin, Harry Wachtel, Walter Fauntroy (Director of the Washington, D.C. office of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference) (SCLC), Lawrence Reddick, Cleveland (Cleveland Robinson, Secretary, Treasurer of District 65, Retail, Wholesale and Department Store Workers Union), and himself [redacted].

According to [redacted] they discussed the situation in Mississippi, with King opining that he, alone, could move "the masses in Mississippi". [redacted] said he told King that he would need an organization and a program to follow through on his ideas.

Levison expressed satisfaction in that King was so optimistic over the Mississippi situation.

Communist Influence In Racial Matters

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised in April, 1964, that Stanley Levison was a secret member of the Communist Party, United States of America (CPUSA), in July, 1963. In late 1963 and early 1964, Levison criticized the Communist Party (CP) for not being sufficiently militant in the civil rights struggle. Levison was described by certain CP leaders as being to the "left" of the CP in his position on civil rights. His differences with the CP, however, are merely tactical and he continues his ideological adherence to Communism.

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that during 1946, he asked Ralph Helstein (President of the United Packing House Workers of America) if he were a Communist. Helstein replied to the effect that he probably could be considered a Communist in view of the nature of his belief. Helstein did not elaborate or explain this statement.

Communist Influence In Racial Matters

In "The Saturday Evening Post", issue of July 11-18, 1964, page 76, Bayard Rustin is the subject of a feature article captioned: "The Lone Wolf of Civil Rights". In it, Rustin is said to have come to New York in 1938, as an organizer for the Young Communist League (YCL), and as such, he had the job of recruiting students for the "Party". Furthermore, the article reports that during his first years in New York, Rustin gave most of his earnings to the "Party". He reportedly left the "Party" in 1941, the article states.

The YCL has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

The "Daily Worker", February 11, 1957, page 1 column 2, reported that Bayard Rustin, Executive Secretary, War Resisters League, was an observer at the 16th National Convention of the Communist Party, United States of America (CP, USA), held in New York City, on February 9-12, 1957.

The "Daily Worker" was an East Coast Communist publication until it ceased publication on January 13, 1958.

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on September 25, 1963, that during a meeting of the National Board, CP, USA, on that date, Benjamin J. Davis remarked that, "Rustin calls me constantly--openly."

Another confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on February 19, 20, 1964, that Bayard Rustin contacted Benjamin J. Davis on those dates and sought his advice as to how he could escape from a speaking engagement to which he was committed. On the latter contact, Davis told Rustin that he was working on his request and had contacted friends who had contacts with the group to which Rustin was to speak.

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on January 21, 1964, that as of that date, Benjamin J. Davis was National Secretary of the CP, USA.

"The New York Times", August 24, 1964, page 27, column 4, reports that Benjamin J. Davis, National Secretary, CP, USA, died in New York City on the night of August 22, 1964.

WILLIAM EPTON contacted CONRAD LYNN and told him that he had not called because [ ] (PH) was not in court when he got there. LYNN remarked that the others were in the jail and that they had a bail that they could satisfy by paying up $50.00 cash for each one and that he was working on writs of habeus corpus.

[ ] (PH) contacted [ ] (LNU) and asked for [ ] (LNU) or [ ] (LNU) and [ ] stated that they had gone to Cambridge to give lectures. [ ] stated that he had just returned from Mississippi and that he would be here for about two weeks.

b6

WILLIAM EPTON contacted [ ] and he asked her to look up a quote on the FBI report on riots.

EPTON asked if <sup>one</sup> some could remember the article that he was looking for ~~that~~ said that there were no Communists involved in the riots. EPTON told [ ] to have 12 copies of "Challenge" sent every week to COFO, 1212 17th Street North, Columbus, Mississippi. EPTON remarked that "a guy" from down there just came back and said that if they sent them down, the Council of Federated Organizations (COFO) would distribute them.

b7C

11/6/64

NY 100-147372

[ ] contacted BILL EPTON. She stated that she is from MPI and asked EPTON for 300 five cent stamps. EPTON had previously told her that he could not get stamps, and she had agreed to mail leaflets before 11:00 after first going to the main Post office.

b6

11/7/64

[ ] contacted [ ] (PH) at Hotel Theresa and asked about getting a room for a press conference and luncheon for the Non-partisan Committee for the Defense of BILL EPTON. [ ] stated that she had been there previously for the International Committee in Defense of Africa.

b6

[ ] (PH) (LNU) contacted WILLIAM EPTON. She stated that it was very important because [ ] was going to be in town and that she had to get in touch with him to find out if he wanted her to sell the stock. She stated that her company wanted to protect him as much as possible. She said that she tried to call him at Harvard but they could not get him and the only information she has is that he lives on Apley Court and is not listed as a student. She asked EPTON why "he" ran away and EPTON stated that he did not have the slightest idea. [ ] asked if the rest were coming in or if CONRAD (CONRAD LYNN) was going to surrender them [ ].

b6

11/9/64

[ ] contacted [ ]. [ ] said that BILL (EPTON) said it will cost $190.00 for a radio announcement over Station WLRB. [ ] continued to discuss the cost of a radio announcement.

EPTON was in contact with an unidentified man regarding the borrowing of sound equipment for the event "tomorrow" at 3:00 P. M. The man stated the truck would not be wired properly until sometime in the afternoon. EPTON stated [redacted] had already made arrangements for the places where the equipment would be used.

b6
b7C

EPTON contacted [redacted] instructing him to contact [redacted] a lawyer, to arrange a meeting at [redacted]'s house "tomorrow" to discuss the trial for disorderly conduct. EPTON said [redacted] will be a witness "for him."

b6

10/28/64

MORT SCHEER contacted EPTON and told him that he would like to have him come out to the coast. EPTON agreed, but remarked that he would need a letter stating the dates SCHEER wanted him out on the coast, and for how long, since he needed such a letter to show the court.

10/29/64

[redacted] contacted EPTON and asked him how the meeting went. EPTON said it was "OK;" "we" only had about 60 or 70 people, but 1/4 were Negroes and this is good for the city. BILL said he did not know why they did not have enough people because 4,000 leaflets had been distributed. [redacted] said that he spoke at Brandeis and had had only 50 people. BILL remarked that the student body in the United States is not ready yet.

b6

10/30/64

An unidentified woman contacted BILL EPTON and advised him that the Dubois Clubs are going to be at the U.N. at 5:00 PM and asked him to join them. He advised that he would be happy to cancel the class that he was to teach at City College and stated that his hand outs labeling the Puerto Rican Police brutality to a highly defamatory degree, [redacted] have already been distributed at Columbia. EPTON said that he might not be able to get them out at City College and that he would probably be at the U.N. for the demonstration against the suppression of the student outburst at the University of Puerto Rico.

NY 100-147372

[ ] contacted EPTON and advised him that he would be unable to pick up "the list" but that he would be able to pick two up "tomorrow." [ ] advised that [ ] is scheduled to speak at 125th Street and Seventh at 5:00 PM today. EPTON said, "I hope there is somebody out there to boo him" and [ ] indicated that there would be.

b6

[ ] was in contact with [ ] in Hardeeville, South Carolina. [ ] indicated that he had been studying hard and that he needed material to back up a paper that he was writing. [ ] advised that the ban had been lifted in Harlem and he said that KHRUCHCHEV was deposed because of obvious corruption in his leadership. [ ] advised that he would be in contact with [ ] on Saturday. [ ] said that he would send him copies of "Challenge" and the "Peking Review."

b6

11/13/64

[ ] Avenue, Flushing, NY, was in contact with the PLM office to complain that he had subscribed to the magazine, but that he had not received any copies.

11/16/64

BILL EPTON contacted [ ] and asked him to meet him (EPTON) at the PLM office. [ ] agreed.

b6
b7C

11/18/64

WILLIAM EPTON, while in contact with [ ] inquired as to the number of newstands carrying "Challenge." [ ] said there were about 25. EPTON said that [ ] is in the Bedford Stuyvesant area a lot, and although he is not officially working for "us" anymore, might be persuaded by EPTON to try to get the paper on some of the stands there.

b6

11/19/64

An unidentified male contacted WILLIAM EPTON and asked him if this was the office of the Harlem Defence Council. When EPTON stated that it was, the man advised him that there was a bomb in the building set to go off in one hour. EPTON asked him what he should do and the man said run.

NY 100-147372

11/21/64

[redacted] contacted WILLIAM EPTON. [redacted] stated that he had tried to subscribe to "Challenge" and that he had sent a check, but had received no copy through the mail. [redacted] said that he felt that [redacted] should give him his copies to read and come to his home. [redacted] gave his address as [redacted] Avenue, Brooklyn 11201, New York. [redacted] said that he attended a PLM meeting in Manhattan Center sometime ago, but did not like what he heard and walked out. [redacted] said that he is a liberal and he does not like what goes on in Mississippi and here but that "when they say" the police are our enemies, and that "you should get them before they get you, this is Communism and I do not want to hear this".

b6
b7D

EPTON disagreed with [redacted] and stated that the Negroes have the right to fight back in self defense and that he is advocating only self defense. EPTON said that there has never been a violent protest in Harlem but the police react violently to their protests, so "we" have decided "we" must resist.

b6
b7D

EPTON said that PLM did not encourage this and that it was spontaneous on the part of the people. EPTON indicated that he disagreed with Mr. KING (MARTIN LUTHER) and that KING led the Negroes to the beach in St. Augustine where they were attacked with ball bats and chains and it was a scene like Nazi Germany.

NY 100-147372

[ ] emphasized that demonstrations should be non-violent and that whether or not it is self defense it has the same result when Negroes attack policemen. EPTON asked [ ] if he would not fight if someone broke down his door and [ ] said that he has been a weakling and a coward and has run away from many fights for years.

b6
b7D

WILLIAM EPTON was in contact with an unidentified male. EPTON asked him if he had sent invitations to the party tonight and the man said he had. EPTON was also in contact with [ ] (LNU) regarding the party and RUBY said that EPTON should check with [ ] (PH) and [ ] to see if they are going to attend the party.

United States Mission (2 PM) November 23, 1964
799 UN Plaza
Protest Rally Against U.S. in Congo

A demonstration by African students was held on the above mentioned date and location. It was reported to be in protest of the handling of the Congo situation and against Tshombe.

The rally started with a racially mixed group walking in front of the U.N. Mission.

This group marched orderly until a man (dressed in African attire) forced them to leave the line. He stated that this was to be a "black man's demonstration only." Among the white people who were demonstrating were some who had just returned from Cuba.

After regrouping, a line of about 50 people marched around in front of the U.N. Mission.

In the line of marchers were BILL EPTON, [redacted] [redacted] and several others from the P.L.M.

b6

[redacted] of the Freedom Now Party stayed around for a couple of hours. When ADLAI STEVENSON entered the Mission, [redacted] started calling him a "fink", a "rat" and several other names. The name calling was picked up by several other people.

b6

NY 100-

Standing to one side and on the other corner was a person with a shopping bag; he was later identified as [ ] a student who just returned from Cuba. In his shopping bag were many copies of a pocket size paperback book known as the Revolution. He would alternate between selling the books and talking with the students from Cuba. Whenever [ ] would leave, [ ] would sell the books. Several African students purchased some books, some stating that the books had been banned from the school's library.

b6

During the demonstration a man carrying a large metal cross attempted to enter the line of march but was escorted out by the police. He had painted on the side of the cross "Down with Communism."

Later another man entered the line of march holding a tiny American flag and a hat made of all the flags of the United Nations. He too left in a hurry.

[ ] was observed getting into a taxi cab with [ ] a lady and [ ]

[redacted] was called a New York Organizer of the Socialist Workers Party, and was somewhat taller than the chairman. [redacted] wore no glasses, had plenty black hair; a long length necktie showed on account of his open coat, while speaking at the speaker's stand, hence he's about one headlength taller than the Chairman.

b6

Significant parts of his speech included: 1) Events at Birmingham, which in his view, established a new trend, or 'a first' - when Negroes joined White Freedom sympathizers - when the local government used water hoses and dogs -

2) The March on Washington - in a longer analysis - was criticized in that the routes were prescribed, White House and other Government property prescribed off limits, members of the "Power Structure" joined as speakers, even the speeches were modified or censored. The demonstration turned out to become a "Picnic". A reputed quote of MALCOLM X "How can there be a demonstration against the government, if members of the Government join it?"

3) A distinction between petition and demand, showed the relative strength or weakness involved, thus in Wash. D.C. the situation changed to the weaker.

NY 100-97078

4. [ ] gave an estimate that 95% of the Negro vote in the past election went to Johnson, and only about 4,000(?) votes in the Freedom Now Movement, a poor figure, but remarkable (to him) in that so few attained it.

b6

5. Goldwater and Johnson recalled to his mind the comparison of wolf and fox, both out to get you, but the one is quicker and more forceful.

6. [ ] named many types of enemies: to the Socialist movement and Black Nationalists - There is no illusion that those living in the Black Ghettos are workers, but they also know that they are at the bottom; by contrast white workers consider themselves middle class, serving as a bar toward combining forces.

b6
b7C

2. In Black Nationalism, no one can make decisions that count when the leader is absent. Further Black Nationalism's leaders have no experience or knowledge to deal with problems at a distance from where they find themselves, i.e., the next state or toward foreign nations, Congo, Vietnam, United Nations. Even MALCOLM X - speaking about 'Back to Africa' with results which seemed to [ ] - more emotional or in the idea stage, than producing tangible results.

b6

7. A Rent strike differs from a Factory strike, the latter directed against the employer, at the production level; it can result in the public going to a competitor, or using a different material, as aluminum instead of steel, if the lack of commodity or goods lasts long enough. In the rent situation results can be obtained mainly through action at a political level. Unions presenting demands are in a better position; however, some unions are telling their men, if you ask for too much, you may lose your jobs, the boss has to close down. This happened at Studebaker, but S. closed anyway.

8. Black Nationalism stands for integration at times, i.e., wants it; and asks for separation at others. In [ ] opinion white labor is, at this time not ready to join black labor, because white labor is not willing to give anything (worth while, implied).

b6
b7C

NY 100-97078

9. [ ] closed his talk with a plea for Socialism to solve human needs, including peace.

b6
b7C

During the intermission the chairman announced.

1. The Next Forum - Dec 18, its topic: "USA: Promised Land or Land of Promises" - with the speaker, [ ]

b6
b7C

2. No Forums for Dec 25 and New Years Day

3. But a New Year's Eve Party to usher in the New Year

4. An African Rally at the Audubon Ballroom for the coming Sunday at 1663 Bway. Manhattan; (near 168th St Station of both IND and IRT subways; (The chairman was quickly corrected when she said 'Concourse Train' to Washington Heights Train).

5. Look for details of time and station for a Sunday speech to be given by Che Guevara, of Cuba.

6. Questions will be limited to three minutes, so that all will be given an opportunity to be heard.

7. The Militant, held up for view, was recommended, and available in the rear, with other literature.

Remarks: [ ] seemed to take her usual count of persons, as did another person, a young, thin, black haired young man. The young man sat with a young blond girl, who went upstairs for a while, then returned. A group of six round tables (diam about 40 inches) were stacked at the left wall; at the meeting's end, later, the audience chairs were folded and the tables placed with four chairs for use.

b6
b7C

Questions: [ ] asked why the Freedom Now Party of Michigan had two factions? The answer can be summed up: Splinter groups can happen, and do; the process can continue.

NY 100-97078

Another Question concerned the unification of black and white labor_

Answer: It is not expected to happen for a long time.

Estimated Attendance 40-45.

December 11, 1964

On December 7, 1964, a Communist Party, USA (CPUSA) New York District Board meeting was held in the Green Room of the Hotel Diplomat, New York City.

Those CP members in attendance included:

BOB THOMPSON

b6
b7C

At this meeting, [redacted] acted as chairman and announced that [redacted] would make the main report.

b6
b7C

[redacted] spoke on the recent 1964 elections and mentioned that the New York Governor Rockefeller is calling the State Legislature back into special session for reapportionment. He denounced his tactics and stated that it would be unfair to the people of this state. He mentioned that the reapportionment should be put off until the new Democratic State Legislature goes into session in 1965.

b6
b7C

[redacted] stated that the time was ripe for the labor and Negro people's movement to get together to do something now on civil rights and full employment. They would be able to bring an understanding to the people in the community on these issues. Together, these two groups could bring about a fair minimum wage law, strengthen the civil rights laws, and bring new advancement in housing. Presently, there is a lack of funds in housing as no money has been made available for Negro housing, only that which can be called the Jim Crow type.

b6
b7C

NY 100-26603-

These two groups of people should also push for a democratic tax program, where those unable to pay should not be forced to pay. According to [redacted], this is the time that plans should be made and issues developed. New movements can be developed to improve school conditions and issues brought forth denouncing the Viet Nam situation.

b6

At this time, [redacted] mentioned that the Party should take a more active part in making plans on what it would like to be done along the issues of the civil rights program, full employment, housing, education, etc. He mentioned that there is presently a Political Action Committee, of which he is a member, but it has not met for some time.

[redacted] met with [redacted] in Court Esplanade Lounge West 152nd St. and 7th Ave. to discuss the problem of getting a mimeograph machine. [redacted] stated he needed that machine to run off some copies of a letter appealing to the blackmen of America to come to the aid of Cuba by donating money for medical supplies. He felt that if this was done the United States would be pressured in to lifting the shipping embargo on Cuba.

[redacted] stated that the U.S. didn't have any embargo on Cuba so far as medical supplies were concerned. This statement upset [redacted]. He then said he wanted the machine to make some copies of his resolutions plus getting out mail to students who had traveled to Cuba with him. He wanted them to handle the medical supply campaign in whatever part of the United States they were located, plus set-up some branches of UNUM.

December 26, 1964

On December 21, 1964 a meeting of the Forbes Club Lower Manhattan Area, C.P., was held at the home of [redacted] [redacted] with the following known to be present:

b6
b7C

The agenda was as follows:

Dues - Literature
Finances
Reform Club Conference
Good & Welfare

[redacted] collected dues and urged all to pay up all assessments for the year. The literature was sold in the samemanner. On Finances, [redacted] reported that $462.00 was collected for Worker Fund for 1964, and that $570.50 was collected for the Sustainer Fund for 1964, making it $467.50 short of the $1500 pledged by the Club.

b6
b7C

A report on Movie Previews was given by [redacted] and that on January 17, 1965 a movie will be shown at the Preview Theater, the proceeds are for the party.

b6
b7C

A discussion on the coming City wide Reform Club Conference was held, and [redacted] reported on a pre-Conference, conference to be held by the East Side Tenants Council.

[ ] objected to this pre-Conference, calling it factionalism and a heated argument was had. [ ] had asked for the floor and was ignored, [ ] then stated he is being railroaded. It was then decided that the East Side Tenants Council should not partake in the City wide Reform Club Conference.

b6
b7C

On Good & Welfare, [ ] spoke out on the War Toys being sold at District 65 Union and Department Stores, also to write to Trailways Bus Company on their hiring practice of not hiring negroes and Puerto Ricans.

b6
b7C

It was learned that [ ] is in Germany and making out very well. [ ] hears from [ ] from time to time. The next meeting of the Forbes Club will be held on January 5, 1965 at [ ].

On Wednesday, December 9, 1964, [redacted]
[redacted] were present at Siloam Church in Brooklyn. b6
[redacted] were working on church projects and b7C [redacted] was setting up a personal file for MILTON GALAMISON of people and organizations with addresses and telephone numbers engaged and committed to Operation Shutdown.

[redacted] also stencilled a sheet for use on February 3rd as an aid to keeping track of activities of people and the school they were picketing, according to instructions given by [redacted] [redacted]

MILTON GALAMISON personally thanked [redacted] on completing the setting up of the file and other work. b6
b7C

[redacted] telephoned [redacted] and gave her a list by "phone of people she was instructed to contact from Siloam Church or at home and invite to the meeting on the following evening, Thursday, December 10th. Among those on the list were:

b6
b7C

[redacted] explained that she had neglected to include these people in the previous day's mailing for GALAMISON and they should be contacted and reminded of the meeting. [redacted] telephoned these people and got some responses, from Siloam Church.

On December 13th, 1964 a telephone conversation was had between [ ] and [ ] wherein [ ] asked if [ ] would come down to Siloam the following day, Monday Dec. 14th to do some work which must be gotten out. [ ] said she herself would be going down now that her work would stop as of the upcoming Wednesday, December 16th. b6 b7C

Discussion was had as to the hiring of two secretaries by Rev. GALAMISON and [ ] expressed indignation that she was not hired since she was expected to give her time free as was [ ] who was a dedicated worker. [ ] agreed this was unfair and [ ] said that something should be said to Dr. GALAMISON concerning it. [ ] asked if [ ] had seen an article in the newspaper wherein J. EDGAR HOOVER said he considered the DuBois Clubs "subversive" and asked [ ] what her thoughts were in the matter. [ ] said that she did not feel - the DuBois Clubs should be rejected for leftist leanings since most people involved in the Civil Rights Movement leaned a little left, certainly no ultra-rightists belonged and she remarked "Are you going to throw me out, now-- for being socialist-minded?" [ ] laughed and the conversation soon terminated when she and [ ] agreed they would meet at Siloam in the near future and would probably be working together on Operation Shutdown shortly. b6 b7C

Baltimore, Maryland
November 16, 1964

"On November 11, 1964, JACOB GREEN, Chairman of the Communist Party (CP) of Maryland, telephoned GEORGE MEYERS, CP District Chairman, at about 1:50 p.m. The two made arrangements to meet at MEYERS' home.

At about 2:30 p.m., GREEN arrived at 1002 Beaumont Avenue, Baltimore, Maryland, MEYERS' residence.

GREEN handed MEYERS $15 which was to be used for expenses in connection with MEYERS' trip to the South.

MEYERS had a map on the dining room table, which contained Kentucky and West Virginia.

MEYERS pointed to the map and said that he was trying to see what the best route might be in connection with a drive to Louisville, Kentucky. He said that it appeared as if his best route would be through West Virginia.

MEYERS then said that he would be leaving soon and would be back Monday. He said he expected to see a man in Louisville with whom he had been corresponding for some time. MEYERS said he might miss the individual on this trip since there was a chance that the man was up in New York.

MEYERS said that this would be his first visit to and he didn't know what to expect since the "National Guardian" representatives had "screwed up Kentucky".

MEYERS said that at one time he felt that a CP club could have been set up in Kentucky and that there had been a chance of five men forming a club which would have been a good Party setup. MEYERS then said that since the "National Guardian" representatives' visit, it appeared that only two persons or one person would be willing to be in the CP club.

MEYERS then indicated that he would stop off in Roanoke, Virginia, and possibly some place in West Virginia, but added that the stop would have to be short since he did not have much time.

MEYERS stated that in New York there would be a National Board meeting very soon which would be followed by a National Executive Committee meeting. MEYERS said he would be in New York November 18-22, 1964, and be back in Baltimore by November 23, 1964. MEYERS then mentioned that a CP Peace and Legislative Club meeting was to take place at GREEN's home on November 12, 1964, and he wanted GREEN to attend in order to push the sale of a book written by HYMAN LUMER which concerned anti-Semitism in the Soviet Union. MEYERS said that GREEN could obtain a copy of this book at the New Era Book Shop.

GREEN then indicated that he would rather attend the MCDR meeting since he felt that it was more important. MEYERS then said that he would talk to SAM SCHMERLER, CP Club Chairman, about the book and have him handle the sale of the book.

GREEN then asked what they should do in connection with [redacted] whose son was on trial in Baltimore City for murdering a white boy. GREEN reminded MEYERS that WILLIAM PATTERSON, CP National leader, wanted MEYERS and GREEN to talk to [redacted] GREEN said that [redacted] kept telephoning him and he did not know what to tell her. GREEN reminded MEYERS that [redacted] attorney.

b6
b7C

MEYERS then told GREEN that the boy's father was one of the Martinsville, West Virginia, 7, who had been electrocuted for raping a white girl.

MEYERS then telephoned [redacted] who advised MEYERS that the case was very bad and that the [redacted] boy had been caught while trying to sell the murdered white boy's clothes.

b6
b7C

GREEN, after [redacted] hung up, said to MEYERS that it did not look as though this were a good case for the CP to be involved. He then asked when WILLIAM PATTERSON would be back from the Soviet Union. MEYERS said in five or six weeks.

b6

MEYERS then suggested that GREEN talk to [redacted] and CONRAD LYNN talked about a Harlem Hospital patient who was operated on and sewed up without being put to sleep. A Negro cop said you are one of the wise guys. BILL EPTON was M.C. of the program. MALCOLM said this is one of the shortest speeches of my life. The Negroes sit-in, lay-in, cry-in, pray-in, we have to really make up our mind if we want to be in the revolution. Harlem was not a riot. You go home and turn on your T.V. sets and see dogs biting us, police turn fire hoses on us. [REDACTED] was the next speaker. Brother and Sister, he introduced two of his African Delegates, [REDACTED] [REDACTED] talked about oppression. He said the recent outbreak in the Congo was planned for six months and not a word was leaked out. They are now exposing themselves at the UN. It's an organization of African unity. New York CORE 309 West 125th St.

General Meeting
12/23/64

The general member meeting of New York CORE was held. There were about 40 members present, white and Negro, about 50-50. [redacted] was in charge of the meeting. [redacted] a Negro girl, was present. She is an outstanding member. She is in charge of a lot of the planning stages of things to come. [redacted] was present. Her father is an outstanding Red in New York City. Her father at one time was supposed to work for a paper called the "Daily Worker". [redacted] talked about the story in last week's New York Amsterdam News on Ballantine Beer. He stated we are going to continue to demonstrate at Harlem stores that sell Ballantine Beer. At this meeting they sold tickets to raise funds. A T.V. set was given away with the lucky number. [redacted] said we have a new magazine out. We like everyone here to buy one tonight. It is only 35¢, but we need money, so everybody give a dollar for this magazine, called "Rights Reviews". The meeting was over about 11:00 p.m.

The rest of the delegates either did not speak or were never referred to, so the names never came up. The meeting was organized as follows:

On Saturday, there was a report from MIKE ZAGARELL from New York followed by a sub-report by [redacted] on the civil rights struggle, and then a discussion all day Saturday of the two reports. The Chairman for the Saturday session was PAUL from Los Angeles.

b6

ZAGARELL's report was, in essence, as follows:

The defeat of GOLDWATER was brought about by a broad coalition of labor, Negro people and youth. There was a high level of activity on the campuses during this election campaign. There was tremendous united front committees developed on every major campus. These united fronts represent a potential for continuous activity among the students for progress. The anti-communist campaign has been seriously weakened and unity has become possible based on common objectives against Goldwaterism. This was reflected in Berkeley, California, by the free speech movement. Also weakened was racism. The white backlash just was not a major feature of this election campaign. There are some new ideas that should be debated in our Party ranks because they represent certain areas of thinking among our members. We all agree that the level of Negro-white unity must be raised even higher. The Party rejects all theories that lead to violence in go-it-alone theories; we reject the ideology of the Revolutionary Action Movement (RAM); we reject the jump-about gorilla warfare as expounded by ROBERT WILLIAMS, and we reject the lines of the progressive labor group. This line is hopeless and leads nowhere. We are for the unity of Negro and white based on concrete struggle for equality of the Negro people. Our line says that we cannot win without the unity of Negro and white. We emphasize the self-interest of white America in the struggle for equality. It is good to report that there are many white youth organizations that are beginning to concern themselves with winning white youth for the struggle of the Negro people. ZAGARELL stated that there have developed certain ideological problems in their ranks that he will try to present. For lack of political characterization, ZAGARELL stated he would describe them as: 1) the "one big action theory" and 2) the "one big organization theory." There is also manifestations of this in discussing the civil rights movement. Some people feel that the struggle for the economic needs of the Negro people is the only path to mobilizing and radicalizing the Negro masses. We did not accept this theory but feel that although the issue of economics is correct, there must also be struggles around other aspects of Jim Crow oppression. The one organization theory seems to think that if we can come up with one big organization, we will be able to mobilize all of the youth into one big center and from there, win this struggle. The one big action theory says that if we can come up with the one big action that will mobilize all the youth such as the old time Socialists proposed when they came up with the general strike. They felt at that time that if they could just get all of the workers to agree to a general strike, it would break the back of capitalism and establish socialism. Both these theories negate the uneven development of both organizational and political understanding among the American youth. The Party's approach must be one of a united front around the issues facing the masses and developing struggles on all levels and with all organizations.

ZAGARELL ended his report by indicating that we must have the approach toward building and extending the base of the left and that unless we do that, we will not be able to win our objectives. The only concrete proposal, ZAGARELL indicated, was that we establish a campaign for recruiting into the Party large numbers of young people in the next immediate period.

The second report was given by [redacted] from New York and who formerly had been in Louisiana. Her report is as follows:

b6
b7C

The civil rights movement is still the dominant one in the United States today. The unity that was presented in the defeat of GOLDWATER represents an advance in the building of Negro-white unity. There are several examples of how this united front has built lasting organizations for struggle. The Party made contributions in this struggle. The Party warned of the danger of the ultra-right. The Party also emphasized the struggle for the alliance of the Negro people with labor and although other sections of the American left were split on how to approach the election, the Party had a consistent position. The Party, however, is still not reflecting in its membership the tremendous struggles of the Negro masses. The issues that are facing the Negro people fall into the category of both objective and subjective issues. The objective issue such as jobs and job discrimination is a basic question that decides the economic future of the Negro people. This is an objective issue. Additional issues such as police brutality, discrimination in education, public places, etc., although important, are subjective issues. We must have an approach, however, to mobilize around all of these questions. The Party youth commission proposed the following program in the struggle to end discrimination in America:

On the campuses--an end to all forms of discrimination; housing, etc.--ending discrimination in fraternities and sororities, discrimination in regard to faculty hiring policies, text books and some form of scholarship for Negro and working class students; among the working class youth--the struggle for jobs and against job discrimination, a direction toward building unemployment workers groups among young workers and to try and influence the Du Bois Clubs for a consistent policy on the job and job discrimination questions; in the high schools--quality education and improvement of the racial composition, and secondly, a struggle for democracy in the text books. In the south, the struggle for federal intervention to guarantee the rights of the Negro people, support to the right to vote movement in the South with the particular emphasis on support to the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC). The status of the Party in the civil rights movement is still inadequate. The struggle for civil rights has been the main area of work by our Party, but we are still lagging in many respects. One point of emphasis is the involvement of white youth in the struggle. We must overcome the inconsistency of our work where our members float from organization to organization. We must answer the question as to why we have not won large numbers of Negro youth to our party. One possibility is the lack of a public image of the Party in the Negro community and that the Negro people do not know the program and the struggles of the Party and their Negro youth have no way of finding out our program. We must take concrete steps to overcome this weakness. Secondly, we spread our Negro cadre too thin and we must allow them to concentrate on building in the Negro community. There is a problem still in our Party--white supremacy--which needs continuing struggle. We should build the unity of Negro-white in our organization so as to set an example for the rest of the civil rights movement. We must change our attitude toward certain of the less active Negro civil rights organizations such as the NAACP youth council. We must determine where our Negro members work so that they may develop a balanced approach to building a base among Negro youth as well as participate in interracial policy organization. We must find the forms to build left movements in the Negro youth community and there is a need to have a different approach to the Negro youth organization.

There must be proposals that we set a goal for the number of Negro youth to be recruited--perhaps a conference of the youth to deal with the problems of the Negro youth movement that this summer we try and make arrangements for our cadre who are students to work for the National Office in some organizing capacity or that some comrades be encouraged to go south in the Mississippi project. That was the essence of her remarks.

In the discussion that followed, only the essence of the discussion will be given because it was impossible to keep up with all of the cross discussion.

The first one to open was [ ] from Northern California. [ ] took a very critical approach to both reports indicating that when MIKE ZAGARELL spoke of the coalition, he did not indicate how deep the sentiment was for continuing activity around the mandate. We did not consolidate the coalitions that were formed during the election. In northern California, there was a great deal of activity in regard to the elections. However, something about the report is unreal because it seems to indicate that all of the participants in the struggle against GOLDWATER are still organized for continuation of progressive ideas.

b6

[ ] from Wisconsin spoke. [ ] in the main, agreed with the estimates put forth in the report. However, [ ] indicated that in Wisconsin, there was a great deal of disagreement as to what position should be taken on the GOLDWATER-JOHNSON election. There was heated debate in the Party club, however, which did not deteriorate into factional strife. All disagreements were handled in a comradely fashion and as a result, [ ] indicated the club is stronger.

[ ] from Boston expressed her agreement with the reports indicating that the activities around Boston are sparse but that they, in the main, agree with what was put forth.

[ ] from Los Angeles spoke. His main attack against the report was the lack of explanation as to what was meant by unity. In his opinion, unity without a program is useless. This young man has also worked for SNCC in Mississippi. [ ] indicated that too often the young communists wait for the Party line in given situations rather than using their own brains and initiative in developing activities around specific situations.

[ ] from New York representing the lower east side Party group spoke. [ ] indicated that more discussion must be made on policy and that what we are trying to get at is a policy for youth work.

[ ] from Connecticut spoke. [ ] indicated that the organizational forms for youth activity are varied and we should not try to place a rigid blueprint on them. A great deal can be said for ad hoc committees which will meet specific struggles in some instances.

b6
b7C

[ ] from Harlem, New York, spoke. The essence was, speaking of the trend among the people since the election, there has been toward more unity against the problems of the people.

b6

[ ] from Los Angeles, California, spoke. [ ] was critical of the report in failing to give ideological leadership and felt that it should have dealt more with these problems.

There were one or two other speakers. DAN RUBIN from New York stressed the necessity for not taking things too literally from what people have been saying, but rather to understand that they are fighting for a general direction. In his opinion, both reports are only giving a direction. It is not expected that each Party club will carry out each individual proposal in the same fashion. In his opinion, there are no contradictions between the reports and the discussions that cannot be reconciled. He does feel, however, that there seem to be some differences in estimates as to the elections. For instance, the Du Bois Clubs took a position that appeared to be neutral in regards to the GOLDWATER-JOHNSON fight. This had serious repercussions throughout the Du Bois Clubs movement. These differences seem to indicate a lack of clarity on the character of the Du Bois Clubs.

[ ] from Detroit indicated that she is sometimes at a loss as to what is going on at these meetings. She continued that in Detroit, there is very limited youth activity. They are trying to form a club and develop their program. [ ] is also the regional coordinator for the Du Bois Clubs, but she indicated she would speak more about that subject under that topic on the agenda.

b6
b7C

[ ] from Oregon also participated.

They broke for supper and agreed that they would try and continue after supper.

After supper, they continued the discussion of the two reports and this reporter consulted with GIL GREEN. GREEN criticized the discussion that evening as extremely poor, his feeling being that the entire meeting so far had suffered from a lack of concreteness and a lack of concentrated approaches to the various problems facing the youth. Therefore, the discussion of Saturday evening was a hopeless mass of abstractions.

The Sunday morning session had opened with a report by [REDACTED], the topic being the Du Bois Clubs and the Party's responsibilities and relationship. This session was chaired by [REDACTED]

b6
b7C

[REDACTED] indicated that there had been phenomenal growth since the convention in San Francisco, California, of the Du Bois Clubs. In all areas where there has been a concentrated effort, we have seen tremendous possibilities. However, the national leadership is plagued with very serious problems. The formation of the Du Bois Clubs indicate that it was correct to fight for a socialist youth organization at this time. There has been a void in the youth movement that needs to be filled. The Du Bois Clubs with its short history has made contributions to various struggles of the young people. Most of the literature that has gotten out has been sold almost immediately. Correspondence comes to the National Office from areas of the country where there are no Du Bois Clubs members. This was particularly true after the attack against the Du Bois Clubs by J. EDGAR HOOVER and some newspapers. The statistics will show that there are many areas that have shown a positive direction. There are approximately 600 members and 30 Du Bois Clubs nationally. The breakdown is as follows:

There are 4 clubs in Southern California;

There are 4 Clubs in the Southwest;

There is 1 Club in Texas;

There is the formation of a Club at the University of Texas;

There is a Club in Madison, Wisconsin, which is perhaps the Club that has the highest level of political and ideological activity;

There is a Club at the University of Minnesota;

There are 2 Clubs in the Chicago area;

Detroit has only an embryo of a Club;

In New York City, there are 9 Du Bois Clubs;

There are 3 Clubs in Northern California;

There is 1 Club in Iowa at Grinnel College;

The situation in Pennsylvania is unclear;

The situation in New England is unclear although there are members in these two states;

There is 1 Club in Antioch;

In the South, there is the possibility of building a Club in Atlanta, and there is also the possibility of initiating a Southern organizing drive.

The first one to discuss this report was [redacted]
[redacted] from Portland. [redacted] indicated there were two Du Bois Clubs in his area, one of which is a working class club. The activities have been limited although they were extremely active in the election campaign.

[redacted] from Madison stated the Madison Club has a very high level of activity. I would like to make a few suggestions in extending its influence in the Midwest. [redacted] indicated that in his opinion, we should begin to work somewhat like SNCC by sending organizers into various cities and developing a consistent approach in some of the underdeveloped areas in the Midwest.

[redacted] from New York indicated they were trying to develop the organization on a state-wide basis. At present, there are only Du Bois Clubs in New York City and nothing up-state, and they too were discussing sending people up-state to renew contacts.

[redacted] indicated his disappointment with certain political questions in relationship to the Du Bois Clubs which had not been discussed. He felt that the discussion has to answer some of the many problems, both financial and political, for the Club. There needs to be an assessment of the Student Democratic Society (SDS). In many areas, this organization parallels the program of the Du Bois Clubs and it has been difficult working out a relationship with to them.

b6
b7C

[ ] spoke from Detroit and made a few general comments.

[ ] from Madison proposed a theoretical organ from the Du Bois Clubs. There was no discussion of it.

[ ] from Seattle indicated they do not have a Club as yet in Seattle.

[ ] from Boston indicated there was tremendous conflict between the SDS and the Du Bois Clubs. The SDS claims not to be a socialist organization but many of its leaders are socialist and the Party should develop a policy in regard to this organization.

[ ] from New York indicated the SDS is not active on New York campuses, but the Du Bois Clubs are.

[ ] from Minnesota stated at the University of Minnesota, they started from nothing and now there is a Du Bois Club at the University.

[ ] from New York indicated New York has four campus clubs, four community clubs and one high school club. They recently held a conference of the clubs, set up a city-wide leadership body, a college council and a community council.

b6
b7C

[ ] from Connecticut spoke and indicated they have one state-wide Du Bois Club.

[ ] from Los Angeles emphasized the necessity for leadership and consistency in building Du Bois Clubs.

GIL GREEN was introduced and GREEN said a few words of encouragement, emphasized the importance of building a youth movement, did not enter into any controversial questions that had been discussed, but emphasized the responsibility of the Party to make assessments and to develop a program and policy.

At the close of everyone discussing, there was a ten-minute evaluation where people were asked to give their opinions of the meeting. The first three people who spoke gave negative estimates of the meeting. One young fellow from Connecticut thought the fact that the meeting took place was positive. The criticisms dealt with the method of arranging the meeting, the lack of communication between the national Party youth leadership and the district, and the weaknesses in emphasis on direction of the Party youth. Most of the criticism was accepted by MIKE ZAGARELL of New York and indicated he would try to do better.

MISSISSIPPI SUMMER PROJECT; RACIAL SITUATION, STATE OF MISSISSIPPI

The Syracuse, New York daily newspaper "The Post-Standard" of June 29, 1964, on page 6, contained an article entitled "Pray in Clinton Square, CORE Marches for 3". This article reported that about 150 members of Syracuse Congress of Racial Equality marched without incident to Clinton Square yesterday with placards calling for prayers for three civil rights workers who are lost and feared dead in Mississippi. The prayer march that began at CORE Headquarters, 609 East Adams Street, led to the shaded steps of the U.S. Post Office Building where the marchers, mostly white, prayed and sang and talked of freedom. According to the article one of the speakers was bearded Syracuse University graduate student, Rudy Lombard, National Vice Chairman of CORE. Lombard, who reportedly was leaving for Mississippi on June 29, 1964, to "coordinate civil rights groups" made an urgent plea to end racial hatred in the South. Lombard stated "There will be more atrocities this summer in Mississippi...this march is part of many marches to federal buildings across the nation. We are calling for federal support of all (civil rights) volunteers and reaffirming our commitment to nonviolence."

The article stated that Lombard will work with the Council of Federated Organizations for registration of Negro voters and the establishment of community centers and private freedom schools in Mississippi.

The vacant apartment building at this address was being picketed by CORE in protest of the owner's alleged refusal to rent an apartment to an African student. The pickets were placed under arrest when they refused to leave the building. The report disclosed that all persons arrested in connection with this picketing signed a certificate of release on December 3, 1962, when they were discharged from the custody of the Syracuse Police Department.

An article appeared in the Syracuse "Daily Orange" newspaper on April 11, 1961, which, among other things, reported that GEORGE WILEY, assistant professor in the Chemistry Department, Syracuse University, who was at one time on the California faculty, was in agreement with a group of students who had viewed the film "Operation Abolition" and felt the student demonstrators in the film were acting independently as opposed to the group in favor of the film.

Another article in the Syracuse University newspaper the "Daily Orange" dated 4/22/63, reported that Dr. GEORGE WILEY, assistant professor of Chemistry, Syracuse University, had distributed CORE leaflets during the picketing of the Woolworth Store in Syracuse, New York, by Negro high school students.

An article in the Syracuse "Herald Journal" newspaper issued 9/14/63, indicated that members of the Syracuse Committee on Racial Equality (CORE) are expected to resume picketing and direct intervention to halt the city's urban renewal project. GEORGE WILEY, Chairman of the Syracuse Branch of CORE, was reported as attending the meeting concerning this matter.

the 16th National Convention of the Communist Party, United States of America (CP, USA), held in New York City, on February 9-12, 1957.

The "Daily Worker" was an east coast Communist publication until it ceased publication on January 13, 1958.

Confidential Source Two advised on September 25, 1963, that during a meeting of the National Board, CP, USA, on that date, BENJAMIN J. DAVIS remarked that, "RUSTIN calls me constantly--openly."

Confidential Source Three advised on February 19 and 20, 1964, that BAYARD RUSTIN contacted BENJAMIN J. DAVIS on those dates, and sought his advice as to how he could escape from a speaking engagement to which he was committed. On the latter contact, DAVIS told RUSTIN that he was working on his request and had contacted friends who had contacts with the group to which RUSTIN was to speak.

BENJAMIN J. DAVIS

Confidential Source Four advised on January 21, 1964, that as of that date, BENJAMIN J. DAVIS was National Secretary of the CP, USA.

"The New York Times", Monday, August 24, 1964, page 27, column 4, reports that BENJAMIN J. DAVIS, National Secretary, CP, USA, died in New York City on Saturday night, August 22, 1964.

Challenge

Meetings of the Ad Hoc Committee in Support of the MFDP were held on December 2-5-8, 1964 which meetings discussed support for the seating of delegates from the MFDP in the United States House of Representatives and the challenging of the regular Mississippi delegates. The December 2, 1964 meeting of the Ad Hoc Committee in Support of the MFDP was held in the office of the Harlem Parents Committee, 514 West 126th Street, New York City, and was chaired by [redacted] of the Harlem Parents Committee (HPC). [redacted] Street, New York City, gave an explanation of the entire challenge procedure. He explained that the opening of the challenge would occur on the opening day of congress, January 4, 1965 and that this was only the first of many actions that would last until July, 1965. One of the immediate objectives of the Ad Hoc Committee was to get local congressmen to support the "challenge."

Confidential source number two on December 23, 1964 furnished a printed flier which was circulated at a rally held on Sunday, December 20 at the William's Institutional Church, 2225 7th Avenue, New York City. The circular indicates that this rally was sponsored by the New York Committee for Support of the MFDP Challenge, 514 West 126th Street, New York City.

An article in the New York "Amsterdam News", December 19, 1964, page 53, entitled "Harlem Rally To Help Mississippi Freedom Party", reported that the above rally would be held at the William's Institutional Church, New York City, and identified William Strickland as Chairman of the New York Ad Hoc Committee For Support of the MFDP Challenge."

Confidential source number three on January 4, 1965 furnished a mimeographed sheet entitled "Organization Objectives For The Freedom Democratic Party Challenge", which set forth the objectives as follows:

1. To disseminate to as wide an audience as possible the real issues and conditions that are at issue in the challenge.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

Communist Influence in Racial Matters;

Challenge

2. To create the kind of home-town interest which will influence congressmen to support the challenge at the various points where this kind of support will be necessary in Congress.
3. To build closer relationships between MFDP and northern community groups particularly the Negro community, trade unions, liberal and civic organizations.

The circular stated that a committee should be formed in the local community to support the "Challenge." The first tasks of the committee will be:

1. To contact the congressmen from their area and inform them of the challenge and their interest.
2. To organize a delegation to visit the Congressman at home urging that he support the challenge before Congress reconvened on January 4th.
3. To develop a campaign of letter writing, petitions expressing support of the challenge to the Congressman and to the House Committee on elections, of the Administration committee and organizing public meetings and rallies designed to demonstrate community support for the project.

The second stage of the "Challenge" (after January 4, 1965) entails the following program:

- A. Statements from prominent local leaders in churches and unions, for example, should be procured as part of the campaign within the community. Most of these people will not participate in direct forms of pressure but may be persuaded to support the challenge in the press, letters to their constituents, or in public meetings.

- B. A major fund-raising activity should be planned in support of the challenge.
- C. Arrange speaking engagements for members of the MFDP to important local organizations. A speaker will be available for mass meetings, union and civil rights affairs provided that transportation and expenses are available from the sponsors.
- D. Contacting the local press and acting as a liaison for placing press statements in local papers concerning the development of the challenge.

The circular requested the local committee to maintain contact with the MFDP, 1017 Lynch Street, Jackson, Mississippi, or 1353 Fourth Street Northwest, Washington, D.C.

Re: Bureau letter to New Haven 12/8/64 and New Haven letter to Bureau 1/6/65.

For information of Los Angeles, AT 1380-B* advised on 11/26/64 that one [ ] (LNU) of Stamford, Connecticut, contacted MARTIN LUTHER KING that date at which time [ ] stated that he wanted to make his annual call of good wishes to KING and his family. During this contact KING stated that he wanted three persons to write a five minute acceptance speech for the Nobel Peace Prize; that [ ] to KING) and BAYARD RUSTIN were two of the individuals whom he desired to write this acceptance, and that he (KING) desired [ ] to be one of the three to write something for him.

On 12/3/64 BAYARD RUSTIN was in contact with one [ ] (ph) of Connecticut, at which time changes in the Mississippi Branch of the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee were discussed. [ ] indicated that he was to speak at Yale University on 12/3/64.

b6
b7C

Investigation by New Haven Office has revealed that ALLARD K. LOWENSTEIN, a graduate of the Yale Law School, Yale University, New Haven, during 1954, spoke at the Yale Law School on 12/9/64. Efforts are being conducted to establish whether or not LOWENSTEIN is identical with the [ ] (LNU) mentioned above.

The Bureau has instructed that appropriate discreet investigation be conducted in order to identify [ ] (LNU) and identify any article written by [ ] on behalf of KING, it being pointed out that [ ] informed KING on 11/26/64 that he had just written an article for KING which "had gone all over the world."

On 12/14/64 Captain [ ] Detective Bureau, Stamford, Connecticut Police Department, advised that he had been on duty the night MARTIN LUTHER KING appeared at Stamford, Connecticut, and that he [ ] had covered the testimonial affair held in behalf of KING on that evening. [ ] said that he is personally acquainted with [ ] that he knows [ ] by sight and that he is certain [ ] was not a passenger in the car owned by the Pitney-Bowes, Inc. company which brought KING to Stamford, Connecticut. He also said that he did not observe [ ] in attendance at the testimonial affair held for KING.

On 12/22/64, Police Officer [ ] Identification Division, Stamford, Connecticut Police Department, advised that he had driven in the Pitney-Bowes car which picked up MARTIN LUTHER KING at the Kennedy Airport, New York City on 11/30/64. He said that KING and BAYARD RUSKIN and one [ ] (LNU) had come to the car from the lounge at the airport, this being the first time he had observed [ ] was unable to state whether KING had previously met with these individuals at the airport lounge. He said that the [ ] (LNU) who accompanied KING at this time was a male Negro in his mid 30s, 5'10" tall who weighed between 160 and 170 pounds and who had a medium complexion. Through the general conversation between [ ] (LNU) and MARTIN LUTHER KING, Officer [ ] received the impression that [ ] was possibly employed as a public relations man, however, he could furnish no specifics as to how he received this impression. b6 b7C

Officer [ ] said that other than himself, MARTIN LUTHER KING and [ ] the other individuals who traveled in the Pitney-Bowes car from New York to Stamford, Connecticut were [ ] (LNU) and a Negro known to him only as [ ] (ph). He did not observe anyone answering the description of [ ] b6 b7C

In view of the above it appears that the only connection between [ ] (LNU) who contacted KING on 11/26/64 and the [ ] (LNU) who met KING at the Kennedy Airport on 11/30/64 is the similarity in the first name. It is possible that this similarity is coincidental. It also appears possible that [ ] is not the [ ] (LNU) who contacted KING on 11/26/64 since no information has been received which would indicate that [ ] was in touch with KING during the latter's visit to Stamford, Connecticut.

b6
b7C

Previous investigation has indicated that [ ] (ph) was in touch with BAYARD RUSTIN on 12/3/64 and that [ ] (ph) said he would speak at Yale University on 12/3/64.

According to the 12/9/64 edition of the "Yale Daily News," a daily newspaper published at Yale University, New Haven, Connecticut, ALLARD K. LOWENSTEIN would speak at Yale Law School, Yale University, New Haven, Connecticut, on 12/8/64 concerning the Freedom Democratic Party in Mississippi.

On 1/5 and 6/65 [ ] Yale University, New Haven, Connecticut, an established reliable source, advised that ALLARD K. LOWENSTEIN graduated from Yale Law School during 1954 and that he [ ] taught LOWENSTEIN a course in International Law. According to [ ]'s recollection, LOWENSTEIN is a white male, short in stature, with red hair. He described him, while a student, as an able writer with an excellent literary style. He said that LOWENSTEIN is apparently affiliated with the Mississippi Freedom Democrats, that he had written a book entitled, "Brutal Mandate" concerning his personal experiences in Africa, that he taught at Stanford University, Palo Alto, California, where he had apparently gotten into some sort of trouble and that he subsequently taught at North Carolina State College, Raleigh, North Carolina. According to [ ] LOWENSTEIN is affiliated with the headquarters of the Mississippi Freedom Democrats located at Washington, D.C. and apparently is employed in some capacity by the Washington, D.C. headquarters of that organization.

b6
b7C

On 1/5/65, [ ] of the Yale Station, United States Post Office, located at Yale University, New Haven, Connecticut, advised that ALLARD K. LOWENSTEIN was not then receiving mail either through the Yale Station or in care of Ezra Stiles College, Yale University.

NH 100-18290

On 1/7/65, [redacted] of Yale University (protect per request), an established reliable source, advised that ALLARD K. LOWENSTEIN then had no official status with Yale University. [redacted] said that LOWENSTEIN then resided in a student dormitory room at Ezra Stiles College, Yale University, as a personal guest of [redacted] and a [redacted] Yale University. b6 b7C b7D

According to [redacted] [redacted] had taken a personal interest in LOWENSTEIN and offered a room at Yale to him in order to help LOWENSTEIN while the latter was writing a novel. [redacted] said that LOWENSTEIN reportedly is interested in helping the Negroes in the South and in helping the Mississippi Freedom Democrats. [redacted] said that [redacted] is a "non-political person" and an idealist who recently has been influenced by [redacted] of Yale University, into assisting the Negro Civil Rights Movement in the South. [redacted] was of the opinion that [redacted] possibly brought LOWENSTEIN to the attention of [redacted] since [redacted] is a Fellow of Ezra Stiles College. [redacted] noted that [redacted] has been publicly known as being extremely active in the Negro Civil Rights Movement in the South, particularly in Mississippi and that he has publicly supported and associated with MARTIN LUTHER KING. b6 b7C b7D

[redacted] said that the recent reference in the "Yale Daily News" to LOWENSTEIN as a "writer in residence" at Ezra Stiles College was merely newspaper descriptive language and that there was no such title or position at Yale University. ReBulet 11/18/64 which advised of a forthcoming national conference of top Negro leaders scheduled to take place in Washington, D. C., during January, 1965. The Communist Party, USA (CPUSA), had plans to have certain of its members from various parts of the U. S. attend such a conference. Recipient offices were instructed to make every possible effort to identify all Party people who intended to attend the conference and determine the roles they plan to play. Consideration was to be given to the designation of certain informants who might be able to attend as Party members so that the necessary coverage might be effected concerning Party attempts at influencing the conference.

NYairtel 1/11/65, copies only to WFO, "Cominfil, Negro-American Labor Council, IS - C," forwarded a letterhead memorandum which reported on 1/10/65 meeting of the National Board, Negro-American Labor Council (NALC). It was decided that that organization's "State of the Race" conference originally scheduled for Washington, D. C., will now be held in New York City at the Riverside Church, 1/30-31/65. According to the Bureau's source, the CPUSA will not be invited or allowed to attend the conference.

Notwithstanding the reported efforts on the part of the NALC to keep Party people away from its conference, we must be alert to any Party efforts to have its people at the conference and in any way attempt to influence it. The Bureau is therefore reiterating its instructions contained in the 11/18/64 letter. The Bureau should be kept promptly advised of all pertinent developments.

Re WFOairtel, copies to New York and Atlanta, 1/14/65, which reported that an unidentified male had visited with two Washington, D. C., attorneys 1/11/65. The attorneys have for some time been very close to the communist movement. The unidentified individual is apparently active in the civil rights movement and, because of his contact with the Washington attorneys, his identity should be determined.

As Atlanta and New York are aware, several individuals associated with the Southern Christian Leadership Conference were in Washington on 1/11/65. They included Martin Luther King, Jr., [redacted] and Randolph Blackwell.

b6

Efforts should be made to identify the individual in question. For possible additional assistance, note that according to WFO the visit of the unidentified male to the Washington attorneys was from 3:45 p.m. to 4:03 p.m.

It is suggested that if the unidentified individual's identity is not readily determined, Atlanta should set out leads to other southern offices in view of the southern background of the individual as reported in reairtel.

Keep the Bureau promptly advised of all developments.

December 29, 1964

A Communist Party, USA (CPUSA) New York District Board meeting was held at the Central Plaza Annex, Room EB on 12/21/64. Those CP members present included:

[redacted]
BOB THOMPSON

[redacted]

MIKE DAVIDOW

b6
b7C

[redacted] acted as chairman for this meeting and stated that MIKE DAVIDOW would make the report on the school situation in New York City.

DAVIDOW's report consisted of a review of the Allen Report put out by the Chairman of the New York State Education Board. DAVIDOW praised this report and stated that of all the reports he had read, this one made the most sense. However, the civil rights groups did not agree with the Allen Report, especially CORE.

DAVIDOW then mentioned that the Reverend GALAMISON was planning a school boycott in February which would affect "600 Negro schools". He stated that the schools affected would be in predominantly Negro neighborhoods and very few white pupils would be involved.

NY 100-26603

DAVIDOW mentioned that the Party was against this boycott since there was no unity between GALAMISON's group and the other civil rights organizations. This was desperately needed, a unity between all organizations, to carry off a successful operation. However, he stated that if GALAMISON did start the boycott, although the Party disagreed with the idea, it would support GALAMISON's group.

DAVIDOW warned that if GALAMISON or other civil rights groups were not careful, there could be a backlash brought on by one of the organizations called PAT. He stated that this organization would counterattack against the GALAMISON idea and, in his opinion, they had one of the best political action groups in the city.

[redacted] made a supplementary report and stated that she believed that the boycott was scheduled for February 3rd. However, those taking part in it were finding it difficult to set up "freedom schools" and it was their plan at the present time to take the children out of school for the day and to take them to various business organizations to show them how these business groups worked. She stated that GALAMISON was obtaining support from the nine Du Bois Clubs in New York, a section of CORE, JESSIE GRAY's organization, and the Harlem Parents Committee.

b6
b7C

[redacted] stated that she was against the boycott and that there was actually a real danger in it because the Negro students taken out of school would be losing part of their education, while the white schools would not be involved and would know nothing about what the Negroes were fighting for. She stated that the trade unions should become involved in this fight for school integration and that the Party should set up a committee to make the trade unions aware of what was going on. However, she agreed that they could not wait for trade union support.

NY 100-26603

[redacted] disagreed with the boycott and stated that she felt that this was not the property of one man, but that all civil rights groups and movements should become involved in this fight. The question of tactics would then be up to not one person but to all organizations to carry out their fight in the best way possible. She also stated that instead of having an all-day boycott at a certain number of schools, they should have a school stoppage of one to two hours at all schools in New York City.

b6

BOB THOMPSON and [redacted] agreed with [redacted] ideas on the school boycott issues.

The specific matter involved in the phase of captioned investigation discussed in relet is that pertaining to the identification of one [ ] (LNU) who is an apparent close associate of Martin Luther King, Jr. This [ ] had been in contact in November, 1964, with King relative to furnishing King some speech material. [ ] had also indicated at that time that he had just written an article for King and that it had gone all over the world. Bureau investigation has been directed to identify the [ ] involved and to obtain specifics concerning any article he had written for King.

The New Haven investigation to date, as outlined in relet, points to one Allard E. Lowenstein as possibly identical to [ ] (LNU). Investigation disclosed that Lowenstein has apparently moved from Connecticut to California and lead was set out in relet for the Los Angeles Office, at Hollywood or Los Angeles, to discreetly attempt to verify the presence of Lowenstein. If presence verified, a lead is also set out to ascertain the circumstances surrounding his affiliation with the film industry, it being noted that Lowenstein is reported to have recently completed the writing of a novel and that a motion picture company had offered to produce the novel.

It does not appear to the Bureau, on the basis of the facts known, that there is sufficient justification for the investigation requested of the Los Angeles Office. Los Angeles is instructed to disregard the leads set forth in relet. New Haven, if it believes these leads are fully justified, should furnish such justification to the Bureau after which the Bureau will further consider this matter.

New Haven also note that relet sets out a lead for the New York Office to ascertain whether Lowenstein is identical to [ ] (LNU) "who was to write an article regarding Martin Luther King." The Bureau is unaware of any prior information to the effect that [ ] (LNU) was to write an article regarding King. The reports known to the Bureau were that [ ] was to be a contributor to a speech being prepared by King and that [ ] had written an article for King which had reportedly "gone all over the world." In the event the New Haven Office has any information to the effect that [ ] was to write an article regarding King, such information should be furnished the Bureau.

January 18, 1965, commencing at 2:10 p.m. At 2:20 p.m., some of the demonstrators entered the building and went into the elevators. However, the elevator operators were ordered not to run the elevators until Welfare Commissioner Dumpson consented to meet with Jesse Gray in the former's office.

Jesse Gray and Welfare Commissioner Dumpson conferred for about 30 minutes. The picketing demonstration at 250 Church Street, was discontinued at 3:30 p.m. On leaving the premises, Jesse Gray made the statement that he had discussed with Welfare Commissioner Dumpson, slum and unlivable housing conditions in Harlem, New York City, and the need for better welfare services. He said also that he supported the striking welfare workers.

SUBJECT: CIRM

As recipient offices are aware, the Bureau is very much desirous of obtaining as much factual information as possible concerning the relationship between Martin Luther King, Jr., and Stanley David Levison. These individuals have occasionally had personal meetings and discreet coverage has obtained desirable intelligence. Attention is invited to the most recent Bureau communication relating to this specific matter, Buairtel 12/16/64.

Buairtel 1/14/65, copies to Atlanta, forwarded a letterhead memorandum of same date which reported a contact between [redacted] and Stanley Levison on 1/13/65. [redacted] instructed Levison to set aside the date of the 29th (presumably 1/29/65) on his calendar because a meeting of King's advisors would be held in New York City on that date. Recipient offices should be extremely alert to all information obtainable from sources available relative to the forthcoming meeting of King and his advisors. New York should commence making plans for most discreet coverage of principals involved so that in the event Levison does meet with King, the desired intelligence will be forthcoming. Of course, no action should be taken which could cause embarrassment to the Bureau or in any way alert unauthorized individuals of the Bureau interest. b6 b7C

Keep the Bureau promptly advised of all pertinent developments.

SUBJECT: CIRM

The 1/12/65 issue of "The Washington Post and Times Herald" contained an article concerning a group of 21 lawyers who plan to assist the Mississippi Freedom Democratic Party in unseating the present congressmen elected from Mississippi. The project, which is referred to as: "Deposition Caravan," will involve the taking of depositions from Negro citizens who have been excluded from voting.

The article identified Morton Stavis of Newark, New Jersey, as National Coordinator of the group. Stavis has a long history of Communist Party (CP) affiliation in New Jersey. He was Executive Board member of the National Lawyers Guild from 1954 to 1962 and served as counsel for CP members in court and before House Committee on Un-American Activities hearings.

New York and Jackson should attempt to identify the other members of this group of 21 lawyers through reliable sources in order to ascertain the extent of communist involvement. This inquiry should be conducted in a discreet manner and no action should be taken which might indicate an active investigation is being conducted.

A meeting of the Peace Club, Crown Heights Section, Communist Party (CP) was held at the residence of [redacted] [redacted] Street, Brooklyn, NY, on the evening of 1/5/65, between the hours of 8:30 p.m. and 10:45 p.m.

The following were in attendance:

b6
b7C

The meeting was devoted to a discussion on the recent letter of Mr. TOGLIATTI, former head of the CP Italy, in which it was recommended that Communist Parties in all countries be granted a greater amount of freedom of action from the CP of the Soviet Union.

[redacted] spoke on this subject.

[redacted] stated that it is his belief that the criticism of the Soviet Union implied in TOGLIATTI's letter is correct. He stated that he believes that the reason that the CP in the United States does not gain in membership and importance is because it always refers to the thinking of the CP of the Soviet Union. He pointed out that it is difficult to convince Americans who are living in a prosperous country to change the American governmental and economic system to the socialism as practiced in the Soviet Union when most Americans feel that they have a better system than the Soviet Union.

[redacted] mentioned that if he were a CP leader he would approach the problems of the CP differently in that he would not always be referring to the Soviet Union because it gives people the impression that the CP in the United States is a puppet of the CP of the Soviet Union. He stated that it is his belief that this is one of the main reasons why most people are not attracted to the CP. [redacted] pointed out that even CP members in the US are living well and it is therefore hard for them to convince people to change the American system to a socialist system or to recruit people into the CP.

b6

[redacted] related that the only way to bring about socialism in the US is by convincing working people and minority groups that their living and working conditions would be better under socialism. He mentioned that the CP failed to capitalize on the great opportunity presented by the Negro Revolution. He pointed out that the Negro people did not look to the CP for leadership but instead looked to religious leaders such as the Rev. MARTIN LUTHER KING. He stated that the Negro people are a religious group as a whole while religion in the Soviet Union has broken down.

[ ] stated that it is his belief that one of the best methods of attracting Americans to socialism is in the teaching of the young. He mentioned that gains have been made in this manner but the teaching must be done in a sneaky manner and not openly.

The others in attendance disagreed with [ ] but stated that his ideas will give them something to think about. They agreed that [ ] criticism of the Soviet Union was uncalled for. [ ] expressed anger at [ ] for his criticism of the Soviet Union.

b6
b7C

It was mentioned that the next meeting of the Peace Club would be held on 1/19/65, at [ ]'s place.

Security Matter - C

On January 20, 1965, a confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, furnished information indicating that Dora Mc Donald (Secretary to Martin Luther King, President of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, SCLC) was in contact with Jo Ann Mc Cloud (a Secretary in the law firm of Clarence Jones) on January 20, 1965. Mc Donald advised that she was interested to know what Jones had done on the article he was to write for King. The article, the source said, was to deal with Nehru (former Prime Minister of India) and is to be published in India. Mc Donald told Mc Cloud to urge Jones to finish the article because there had been many inquiries as to when it would be completed.

[redacted] YSA couple from Minn.

The chairman of the meeting was [redacted] recording secretary was [redacted] with [redacted] and [redacted] collecting dues and pledges.

An announcement was made by [redacted] on the success of the New Year's Eve party which netted the branch $160.00 in profit.

[redacted] gave the last minute details of the Forum which this week will be on Thursday and will feature MALCOLM X speaking on the prospects for 1965. Individuals were given specific assignments for the coverage of the meeting.
All were instructed to dress with suit and tie for the occasion.

NY 100-97078

[ ] gave the organizer's report. He said that the importance of the MALCOM meeting can not be over emphasized for the party. MALCOLM represents the best real opening for the party into the radical and militant elements of the Negro people and an opening to the ranks that the party wants to reach. He complimented the branch on the outcome of the New Year's Eve social where many contacts for the party were made. On membership he reported the transfer to Detroit of Comrade [ ]

b6
b7C

He then read a communication from the National secretary of the call by the Bolivian Trotskyists for financial help from all of the Trotskyist parties in the Hemisphere. The letter said that according to the Bolivian Trotskyist the situation had opened up for the party now that the country has come under democratic leadership. The party supposedly has influence in the mining districts and funds are needed to bolster the organization so that it can cope with a rising revolutionary situation. The SWP has pledged a minimum of $1,000 which will be sent by the party as an individual contribution to the Bolivian party in such a way as to skirt the Voorhis Act which supposedly prohibits money gifts of this nature.

[ ] was appointed to be in charge of the collecting of funds from individual members who were called upon to make pledges. Almost $200 was pledged that evening.

b6
b7C

After the intermission [ ] gave a report on the YSA Convention which was held in Chicago over the New Year's weekend. He reported that he had been removed from the YSA membership because of his age [ ] He said that the new officers were [ ] who is [ ]

[ ] He reported the membership as 240 with an attendance at the convention of 145. The Student orientation was retained. Among changes voted were the enlargement of the NO with additions for purpose of training. Two from Minnesota who had already arrived and two from Berkeley and one from Chicago who still had not arrived.

NY 100-97078

He reported that there was an amendment to the Constitution of the YSA to bring it more in line with that of the party. The Amendment was that Proportional Representation for the minority be discarded with minority representation being left to the decision of the Convention and the leaders of the youth.

Re New York letter dated December 3, 1964 to Bureau, and New York airtel to Boston, December 31, 1964.

The following investigation was conducted by SA JOSEPH E. FINNEGAN:

Inquiry at [redacted] Ave., Cranston, Rhode Island on January 13, 1965 developed that the [redacted] family has not lived there for over ten years.

Captain [redacted] Detective Division, Cranston, Rhode Island Police Department, advised from his records on January 13, 1965 that [redacted] St., Providence, Rhode Island had been interrogated at 6:29 p.m. August 31, 1964 because he was trying to obtain gasoline at Del Bonis Service Station, 1487 Park Ave., Cranston, Rhode Island without funds. He was in the company of [redacted]. He had previous contacts with this police department on April 25, 1958 when found sleeping in a car, and on March 1, 1948 when arrested for motor vehicle violations.

COMMUNIST INFLUENCE IN RACIAL MATTERS

A source advised that on January 25, 1965, in conversation with [redacted] Illinois Communist Party (CP) [redacted] who are also members of the CP of Illinois, [redacted] stated that he has learned from "a reliable authority", not further identified, that the Progressive Labor Party in New York is planning an armed revolt in Harlem; however, [redacted] did not furnish any further details with respect to dates nor identify possible instigators of such action.

b6
b7C

Source further advised that [redacted] stated that since he knows of these plans for this revolt, the FBI with its informants within the Progressive Labor Party, certainly knows of this plan. [redacted] indicated that it is his belief that these informants have helped plan this revolt and that J. Edgar Hoover will use them to precipitate said revolt at a moment most advantageous to his purpose.

[redacted] also advised that the Director of the FBI's purpose in this matter is to prove that United States communists advocate the violent overthrow of the established United States Government inasmuch as Progressive Labor Party members continually and openly state that they are communists, and distinction is not made and will not be made by the FBI between the Progressive Labor Party and the Communist Party, USA. Source is unable to provide any further details in this matter.

Characterization of the Progressive Labor Movement is attached.

APPENDIX

PROGRESSIVE LABOR MOVEMENT,
Aka. Progressive Labor Party, "PROGRESSIVE LABOR"

A source advised on July 2, 1962, that Progressive Labor groups held a conference in New York City on July 1, 1962, where [ ] acted as chairman. He read a statement at this conference setting forth their intention to form a new Marxist-Leninist party in the United States. [ ] stated that a more formal organization was necessary, one which would provide a framework for all who wanted to join in a united effort to build an American vanguard. The forces of this new organization are to consolidate all existing forces and organize additional forces, expand and improve political activities, win additional forces to an outlook of Marxism-Leninism and increase the open advocacy of socialism, develop a significant Marxist-Leninist program for the new party, and organize a collective organization of leaders and members.

b6

"The Worker," an east coast communist newspaper, issue of January 7, 1962, page ten, column three, reported the expulsion of MILTON ROSEN, former Labor Secretary of the New York State Communist Party, USA.

A second and third source advised in February, 1963, that this new Marxist-Leninist party had not yet been organized on a formal basis, but that Progressive Labor groups had been formed in several localities in line with the proposals of [ ]. The sources advised as of February, 1963, that the leaders of this group were referring to it as the Progressive Labor Movement.

A fourth source advised on March 15, 1964, that the Progressive Labor Movement follows, supports and is politically orientated toward the Communist Party line of Red China rather than that of the Soviet Union.

A fifth source advised on March 28, 1964, that at a Progressive Labor Movement meeting held in New York City on that date, it was announced that the Progressive Labor Movement would try to hold a national convention in New York City in September, 1964, to organize the Progressive Labor Movement on a more formal basis into a Progressive Labor Party.

PROGRESSIVE LABOR MOVEMENT

The fifth source also advised that the Progressive Labor Movement publishes a monthly magazine called "Progressive Labor" and also a quarterly theoretical publication called the "Marxist-Leninist Quarterly." The source also advised that starting June 1, 1964, the Progressive Labor Movement would start publishing a weekly newspaper in New York City.

The March, 1964, issue of "Progressive Labor" sets forth that it is published monthly by the Progressive Labor Company, General Post Office Box 808, Brooklyn 1, New York.

Handbills circulated on January 25, 1965, by supporters of the City-Wide Committee for Integrated Schools (CWCIS) in the vicinity of Public School 258, located at 141 Macon Street, Brooklyn, New York, and at Junior High School 33, Throop and Hopkins Avenues, Brooklyn, New York, called for a shut-down of these schools on January 27 and 28, 1965, respectively. The handbills also announced plans for a "freedom school" for absentee students at Apollo Theatre, Fulton Street and Throop Avenue, Brooklyn, New York.

The New York "Herald Tribune", January 27, 1965, page 10, reported that the legal battle between lawyers for Milton Galamison of the CWCIS and the Corporation Counsel of the City of New York, in the United States District Court, Eastern District of New York, resulted in a "reserved decision". The Corporation Counsel wanted the case on its temporary injunction against the boycott argued in State Court. The CWCIS wanted a Federal trial on the ground that their civil rights had been abridged. Judge Rayfiel reserved decision pending submission of additional briefs.

"The New York Times" of February 1, 1965, on page 12, contains an article captioned, "45 Negro Leaders Outline '65 Aims; Political Action and Voter Registration Stressed". The article, which was written by Paul L. Montgomery, stated that forty-five national Negro leaders declared yesterday (February 1, 1965) that their civil rights strategy for 1965 would emphasize voter registration and political action. It was indicated that the Negro leaders would insist on increased Negro representation in the Government bodies implementing the Civil Rights Act of 1964 and the Economic Opportunity Act, which created the Federal anti-poverty programs.

According to the article, the meeting which consisted of two days of discussions and workshops at the Interchurch Center, 475 Riverside Drive, New York City, was called by A. Philip Randolph, president of the Brotherhood of Sleeping Car Porters, who was described as the elder statesman of the civil rights movement. Randolph presided at a news conference which followed the closed sessions of the meeting.

According to the article, the following individuals were present at the meeting:

Re: Communist Influence In Racial Matters

Dr. Kenneth B. Clark, College of the City of New York.

Arthur Rice, Catholic Interracial Council.

Theodore Brown, American Negro Leadership Conference on Africa.

The Negro leaders indicated that of equal importance is their responsibility for undertaking an intensive educational campaign to acquaint Negroes with their rights and expanded opportunities under this new legislation. The leaders, according to the article, feel that some gains have been made but that there is still an enormous gap of social and economic inequality to be bridged.

The article mentioned that Jesse Gray, who was not invited to the meeting, made a statement on the evening of February 1, 1965, that the conference (called by Randolph) "will just end up a waste of time for everyone concerned because the 'grass roots of the ghettos' did not participate.

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on April 12, 1962, that [redacted] and his wife, [redacted], are not known to be members of the Communist Party; however, they have the reputation of supporting or aiding causes, through personal appearances, which are also supported by the Communist Party (CP).

Communist Influence In Racial Matters

In "The Saturday Evening Post", issue of July 11-18, 1964, page 76, Bayard Rustin is the subject of a feature article captioned: "The Lone Wolf of Civil Rights". In it, Rustin is said to have come to New York in 1938, as an organizer for the Young Communist League (YCL), and as such, he had the job of recruiting students for the "Party". Furthermore, the article reports that during his first years in New York, Rustin gave most of his earnings to the "Party". He reportedly left the "Party" in 1941, the article states.

The YCL has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

The "Daily Worker", February 11, 1957, page 1 column 2, reported that Bayard Rustin, Executive Secretary, War Resisters League, was an observer at the 16th National Convention of the Communist Party, United States of America (CP, USA), held in New York City, on February 9-12, 1957.

The "Daily Worker" was an East Coast Communist publication until it ceased publication on January 13, 1958.

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on September 25, 1963, that during a meeting of the National Board, CP, USA, on that date, Benjamin J. Davis remarked that, "Rustin calls me constantly--openly."

Another confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on February 19, 20, 1964, that Bayard Rustin contacted Benjamin J. Davis on those dates and sought his advice as to how he could escape from a speaking engagement to which he was committed. On the latter contact, Davis told Rustin that he was working on his request and had contacted friends who had contacts with the group to which Rustin was to speak.

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on January 21, 1964, that as of that date, Benjamin J. Davis was National Secretary of the CP, USA.

"The New York Times", August 24, 1964, page 27, column 4, reports that Benjamin J. Davis, National Secretary, CP, USA, died in New York City on the night of August 22, 1964.

Re: Communist Influence in Racial Matters;
Mississippi Summer Project
Racial Matters

On January 27, 1965, a source furnished an invitation of the New York Chapter of the Medical Committee For Human Rights stating the following:

"In July, 1964, at the urgent request of civil rights leaders in Mississippi, the Medical Committee for Human Rights was formed as an emergency medical service for civil rights workers in the Mississippi summer project. More than 100 volunteers from various health fields went to Mississippi to facilitate the meeting of the health needs of civil rights workers, local and visiting. The problem continues and the Medical Committee is preparing to aid the great effort for civil rights planned for this coming summer.

"In order to support the activities of the Committee and also to develop programs in regard to the health aspects of problems of inequality in their own localities, chapters have been organized in a number of cities throughout the country. A New York Chapter is in the process of organization and we urge all members of the health professions (Medicine, Dentistry, Psychology, Nursing, Social Work, and other related fields), students and graduates, to join us at an organizational meeting and symposium on:

'Civil Rights and Health---1965'
